- The United Kingdom is one of Aegon's three main markets, in addition to the US and the Netherlands. Aegon has been serving customers in the UK for almost 190 years, with its history dating back to the founding of one of its predecessors, Scottish Equitable, in 1831.
- Aegon UK is focusing on pension, investment and protection solutions. Aegon UK accesses customers through wealth advisers and the workplace and has a market-leading position in each with 3.9 million customers.
- Its products and solutions are largely sold through platforms which enable customers to manage their savings online.
- At the end of June 2020, Aegon UK managed GBP 143 billion of platform assets and had GBP 180 billion assets overall. Over the last five years, the Aegon UK has focused on transforming and scaling its platform business through organic growth and by the acquisition of Cofunds retail savings platform, and BlackRock's large employer workplace pension business.
- Furthermore, Aegon UK has deep relationships with more than 6,500 adviser firms and 10,000 employers. Its main offices are in Edinburgh, London, Peterborough, and Witham.

Social impact

Aegon UK plans an active role in its local communities and has various partnerships with organizations that make a social impact. Aegon UK partners, among others, with the Breakfast Club, helping to give children a free, healthy, and nutritional start of their day. In addition, Aegon has a partnership with Prince's Trust, creating opportunities to help young people get into work.
