

AEGON N.V. CLOSED PERIODS | 2022

Persons discharging managerial responsibilities [1], other permanent insiders within Aegon N.V. [2], as well as material risk takers [3] are not allowed to conduct any transactions on their own account or for the account of a third party, directly or indirectly, relating to the shares or debt instruments of Aegon N.V. or to derivatives or other financial instruments linked to them during periods leading up to the public announcement of the interim financial report or the year-end report of Aegon N.V.

These (scheduled) periods are referred to as closed periods. A closed period commences at minimum thirty (30) calendar days before the publication of the quarterly and full year results of Aegon N.V. Insiders are allowed to trade during an open period provided they are not in possession of inside information in relation to Aegon N.V. Trading restrictions are lifted on the day following the public announcement, at 0.01 am (CET), unless instructed otherwise by the Group Compliance Officer of Aegon N.V.

Please note that additional (unscheduled) closed periods –also referred to as ‘blackout periods’– are NOT included in this calendar. [4]

ENDNOTES

- [1] Within Aegon N.V. persons discharging managerial responsibilities are the members of the Management Board and the Supervisory Board of Aegon N.V.
- [2] As identified under the Aegon N.V. Insider Dealing Policy
- [3] As identified under the Aegon Group Global Remuneration Policy
- [4] Trading during an open period may be restricted for certain (groups of) individuals due to the existence of inside information, for which Aegon N.V. has exercised its right to delay public disclosure. These additional unscheduled closed periods are referred to as blackout periods. This applies to situations whereby immediate disclosure of such information would prejudice the legitimate interests of the company. Individuals who will be restricted in their ability to trade during an open period will be notified by the Group Compliance Officer of Aegon N.V.
